

Position Overview

GP Representative: Antenatal Share Care Advisory Committee

Responsibilities include:

- Providing advice on planning, promoting and implementing the program and associated activities, including review of resources.
- Providing advice on quality improvement activities including CPD and other processes to continuously improve the quality, safety and efficiency of the program.
- Attending and actively participating in advisory meetings through review of agenda papers, discussion, and review of minutes.
- Providing advice fairly, impartially and in a timely manner, considering all available information collaboratively with the associate hospital program and CESPHN to promote ANSC between hospital clinicians, nursing staff and GPs.
- If required, assisting in the orientation of new GP affiliates to the program protocols and chairing ANSC events.

Selection criteria:

- An interest in the professional development of GPs
- Enthusiasm to influence best practice and continuous quality improvement in general practice
- Current affiliation/recognition with the relevant ANSC Program
- Experience managing patients under the ANSC model of care
- Excellent communication skills with sensitivity to differing demands of consumers, GPs and hospitals.

Time commitment

- Approximately 2 hours per month
- Attendance at ANSC Advisory Committee Meetings 3-4 times per year.

Appointment term:

- GP Representatives will be appointed for a three-year term.

Remuneration:

CESPHN Representatives are appointed as per the terms and conditions outlined in the EIS Health Ltd Representation Policy. GP Representatives are reimbursed for their time at the current CESPHN approved GP Representative rate. CESPHN also reimburses any pre-approved, reasonable out of pocket expenses which are incurred in connection with the performance of their role. For more details, refer to the EIS Health Ltd Representation Policy.

Application process:

Interested GPs are asked to complete an online application form by October 15th 2024. Applications will be reviewed by an external panel and all applicants will be notified on the outcome of the recruitment process.

For any enquiries, please email ansc@cesphn.com.au