

GP Antenatal Shared Care

Sharing your pregnancy care between your GP and the hospital.

- Continuity and coordination of care with the hospital up until time of birth.
- Caters for the preferences and needs of women from different cultural backgrounds.
- Care provided within an established relationship with your family doctor.
- Flexible and extended appointment times.
- More convenient, with fewer trips to the hospital.

Talk to your GP for more information.

Scan here
to read the Patient Brochure

