8.4.2 Subject to this Constitution, for a general meeting to be held, at least ten (10) Ordinary Members (a quorum) must be present (in person, by proxy or by representative) for the whole meeting. When determining whether a quorum is present, a person may only be counted once (even if that person is a representative or proxy of more than one Ordinary Member).

8.4.3 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting or a longer period allowed by the chair:

- (a) and if the meeting was convened by or on the requisition of Members, it must be dissolved; or
- (b) it must stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to another day and at another time and place determined by the Directors.

8.4.4 If a meeting has been adjourned to another time and place determined by the Directors, not less than 7 days notice of the adjourned meeting must be given in the same manner as in the case of the original meeting.

8.6.2 The Directors present at a general meeting must elect one of their number to chair the meeting if:

business, procedure and conduct of the general meeting is final and no motion of dissent from a ruling of the chair may be accepted.

8.7.2 The chair may expel any Member or Director from a general meeting if the chair reasonably considers that the Member or Director's conduct is inappropriate behaviour. The following conduct may be considered inappropriate in a general meeting:

8.8.2 The only business that may be transacted at any adjourned meeting is the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

8.8.3 When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as in the case of an original meeting.

8.8.4 Except when a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, it is not necessary to give a notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

8.9 Voting on show of hands

8.9.1 At a general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded before that vote is taken or before the result is declared or immediately after the result is declared. This right to demand a poll must be drawn to the attention of the meeting by the chair at the beginning of the meeting.

8.9.2 If a poll is not duly demanded, a declaration by the chair that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

8.10 Demand for a poll

8.10.1 A poll may be demanded by any Ordinary Member.

8.10.2 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

8.10.3 The demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of business other than the question on which a poll is demanded.

8.10.4 If a poll is duly demanded, it must be taken in the manner and, except as to the election of a chair or on a question of adjournment, either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the chair directs. The result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.

8.10.5 A poll demanded on the election of a chair or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

8.11 Voting rights of Ordinary Members

Ordinary Members have the following voting rights:

- (a) on a show of hands, every person present who is an Ordinary Member has one vote; and
